

Media Release

Business Releases Ten Recommendations to OECD Ministers for Productivity and Growth

Paris, 1 June 2016 –Addressing the annual OECD Ministerial Council Meeting, BIAC Chairman Phil O’Reilly pointed to the pressing need to implement structural reforms for the competitiveness and productivity of our economies.

“Governments must recognize the fundamental role of entrepreneurship and open markets if we want to lift the growth potential of our economies, strengthen productivity, and as a consequence create more jobs,” said O’Reilly.

The “10 Business Recommendations for Productivity, Prosperity, and Inclusive Growth” BIAC submitted to the OECD Ministers are available online: <https://t.co/Rjg9hrrpq>

About BIAC:

BIAC speaks for business at the OECD. Established in 1962, we stand for policies that enable businesses of all sizes to contribute to growth, economic development, and prosperity. Through BIAC, national business and employers federations and their members provide expertise to the OECD and governments for competitive economies, better business, and better lives.

For more information, contact Ali Karami-Ruiz, BIAC Director, Policy and Communications.